

ERNEST BLOCH

From Jewish Life

Arranged for cello ensemble

by David S. Zelinsky

ARRANGER'S NOTE: From Jewish Life was originally for solo cello with piano accompaniment. It was written in 1924 for cellist Hans Kindler, who had premiered Bloch's Schelomo and was later the founder and conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra. This arrangement uses the original solo part, and simply divides the piano accompaniment among the four other cello parts. The only significant change is that Supplication is transposed down a whole step in order to make the high-octave alternating fifths in the accompaniment playable as harmonics.

This system contains the first five staves of the musical score. The 'cello solo' staff features a melodic line in 4/4 time, starting with a triplet of eighth notes (p) and moving to a half note (mf). The four cello parts (A, B, C, D) are in the same key and time, with cellos A and B playing sustained notes and cellos C and D playing a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. Dynamics include p, mf, and p.
